ELECTION JUDGES

Election judges work as a team of community members to run a polling place on Election Day.

You will cycle through a variety of roles throughout the day: open/close the polls, greeting voters, helping voters register, checking registered voters in, explaining how to mark a ballot, and more. If you speak a language in addition to English, you may be able to provide language support to voters who need it.

The hourly pay is $11 per hour. A two hour, paid training session is provided.
